

IT'S THE NINETIES (Home mix)

(Debbie Atterholt – Jean Launay)

Ho-oh, ho-oh, ho-oh, ho

Ho-oh, ho-oh, ho-oh, ho

Nineties

Ho-oh, ho-oh, ho-oh

Nineties

Hey there babies, remember when Hari Krishna was sittin' in ?

Organics, macro politics, no one taught you how to walk like this

Time for acting, no more waiting

Cause we're ready to move yeah

We've been learning, now we're driving

Make room please

It's the nineties, now, in the cities

It's the nineties, yeah! We're big kids

The world was simple, East was east and West was best – Damn right!

Something's come along, ripped it up, and put you to the test – Who's the best?

Times are movin', things are changin'

Cause our luck is turning

There's an East wind, blowing in freedom

Building new countries

It's the nineties, now, in the cities

It's the nineties, yeah! We're big kids

Ho-oh, ho-oh, ho-oh, ho

Listen people to what I say

There's a warm breeze blowing in a brand new day

No Cold Wars, no boundaries

Just talkin' about Civil Liberties

Come on people, no looking back

There's a world a-waitin', if you got the knack

There's a new life, just look ahead

So wake up world, and get outta your bed!

Ho-oh, ho-oh, ho-oh, ho

It's the nineties, now, in the cities

It's the nineties, yeah! We're big kids

It's the nineties, now, in the cities

It's the nineties, yeah! We're big kids

Hit it!

Ho-oh, ho-oh

Nineties

Don't tell me, I don't wanna know, where you learned to hate like that

Ho-oh, ho-oh

Nineties

You got your work cut out, 'cause now's the time to get your head on straight – real straight

Ho-oh, ho-oh

Nineties

The world was simple, East was east and West was best – Hot damn!

Ho-oh, ho-oh

Nineties

Something's come along, ripped it up, and put you to the test – Who's the best?

Ho-oh, ho-oh

Nineties

Hey there babies, remember when Mama Hari Krishna was sittin' in ?
