

LOOK INSIDE (Early version)

(Debbie Atterholt – Jean Launay)

Soldiers of the image war, you should have known before

If you want to have a style, it should come from inside

Don't ignore your source

You'll find a greater force

Waiting in the wings to be set free

Take a look, look at you

See what you have inside

Look, look inside

You've got the look inside

Take a look, look at you

Show what you hide inside

Look, look inside

You have to look inside

In the middle of the night, when you turn out the light

If no mirror's watching you, what good's your image do?

Curl up in your smile, there you'll find a style

It waits inside for its debut

Take a look, look at you

See what you have inside

Look, look inside

You've got the look inside

Take a look, look at you

Show what you hide inside

Look, look inside

You have to look inside

Le look c'est fou, le look c'est tout

Mais si tu look à l'intérieur, tu verras peut-être le meilleur

Occupe-toi de ton look, mêle-toi de ce qui te regarde

Look à l'intérieur, mais fais-toi le look à l'intérieur !

Take a look, take a look

Look inside, look inside

Take a look, look at you

See what you have inside

Look, look inside

Take a look, look at you

Show what you hide inside

Look, look inside

You have to look inside

Take a look, look at you

Look inside

You've got the look inside

Take a look, look at you

Look inside

You have to look inside

Take a look, look at you

Look inside

Take a look, look at you

Look inside

You have to look inside

Tu as le look en toi

Tu as le look en toi
