

DANCE (Organ dub version)

(Debbie Atterholt – Jean Launay)

Dance, and put your troubles away

Dance, I've got something to say to you

It's a fabulous chance – Dance!

You can't just cry in your beer, so wipe away that tear – Dance!

Glance at the world all around

Glance at someone else who's found the way

At those who're trying to say to you

Live by the seat of your pants, discover lasting romance – Dance!

(Rap)

You got your head on the floor, your back against the wall

Ya' got cold feet. Your nerves are in a ball, so dance!

When your toes start tappin', just dance!

You got a chip on your shoulder, and you gotta move around, just dance!

Dance, and get off of your butt

Stop your constant wondering what to do

C'est la suprême élégance – Danse!

Wash away your blues, put on your prancing shoes – Dance!

Dance, dance, dance!
